A benefit for Second Chance at Love Humane Society, a no-kill dog rescue organization in Templeton, will take place on Saturday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Excellent Experiences Gallery in the Morgan Stanley Building, located at 755 Santa Rosa St., Suite 200, in San Luis Obispo.

Cheri Lucas, founder of Second Chance at Love Humane Society and dog behaviorist, will talk about her association with Cesar Millan, the famous dog whisperer, and the impact he has had on her shelter. There will also be a media presentation of Cheri on a "Shelter Consult" at the Doberman Rescue Center in Fillmore.

Bill Wesnousky, president of Second Chance at Love and gallery owner, will talk about the gallery and give a tour of the 50 pieces of fine art and sculpture. Lynn Manzella will sing from her latest CD with backup musicians Stromberg, drums; Todd Johnson, bass; and Bob Harway, piano.

Tickets are $50 per person and are a tax-deductible donation. Reservations are required and seating is limited. For information or reservations, call 434-3909.
